

FOREIGN BORN TO BEAT DEMOCRATS

German, Italian and Polish Vote To Be Republican, Says Lawrence—Domestic Issues Are Considered.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE,
(Special Correspondent of The News Scimitar.)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 18.—West-ern New York has so much to do with the cutting down of the Democratic majority gained in the Tammany districts that one need not search further than Erie county for the reasons New York state will go heavily Republican this year. Germans, Italians, Poles, Slovaks, foreign-born population that exceeds the native-born. It is easier to assume that some of these groups will be affected by foreign issues in which the Wilson administration has become involved for or against the home countries, but investigation among the leaders of thought in these foreign-born units brings the conclusion that domestic questions, especially the high cost of living, have had and will have as much to do with the exercise of the ballot on election day as the grievances growing out of the European war.

The campaign among the foreign-born has not been extraordinary. Certainly it has not been as intense as it was in 1918. On the other hand, the Democrats have inherited much more trouble than the Republicans have acquired and it is hardly an exaggeration to say that the bulk of the German vote, the Italian vote and even the Polish vote, will go to Harding.

If Wilson were a candidate, a leader of the Poles told the writer, he believed the Polish vote would be Democratic this year as there is a feeling of antipathy toward the president in establishing the Polish republic. But the high cost of sugar and the well-cultivated belief that the Republican administration will somehow bring relief from economic ills of today, will turn the Polish vote to the Republicans.

Some of the same idea was expressed to me by the German-American spokesman here, who predicted confidently that the pendulum would swing to the Democrats if the Republican party failed to bring relief. On the other hand, the feeling against the Wilson administration and Gov. Cox himself on purely German issues, has deprived the Democrats of any chance they might have had this year even if the idea of Democratic sympathy could have been convincingly presented. For instance, a big display advertisement appeared in the Buffalo Volkfreund two days ago signed by the Cleveland Wachtler and Anzeiger, and the Cincinnati Free Press, in which Gov. Cox is denounced for the part he played in forbidding the teaching of German in Ohio schools. The advertisement is first an appeal for German nationalism and then declares that four months after the armistice—April 1, 1919—Gov. Cox in a statement of message, said:

"I assert without reservation that the teaching of German to our children, no matter where they live, is a menace to our Americanism. It is not only a distinct menace to Americanism but it is part of a conspiracy for the purpose of overthrowing the German government in Berlin."

Then the advertisement signed by the two Ohio daily newspapers goes on to tell the German-American states that an attempt was made to exempt the parochial schools from this prohibition of the teaching of German, the same Gov. Cox denounced those schools as breeders of sedition.

"It is the sacred duty," says the advertisement, "of every American of German origin who has left in him a single spark of pride, of every woman who knows how to treasure mother love, to utter a protest against this." Every vote for Warren G. Harding is a protest against the persecution of which the Americans of German origin have been the victims in the last few years, a protest against the unjust slanders that have been leveled at them, a protest against the intolerable nationalist (jingo) patriotism of which Gov. Cox stands before the nation as the champion, a decided strengthening of the Harding campaign motto of America First.

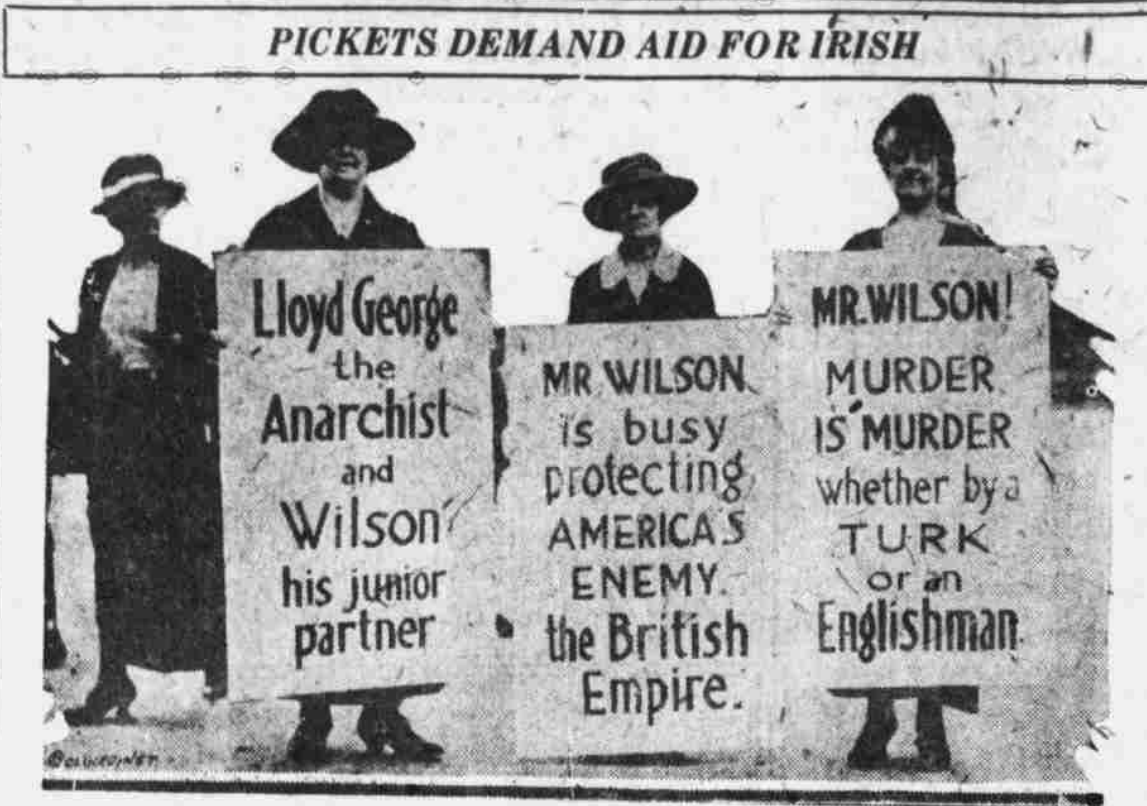

In talking with one of the Germans here, it was reminded that while the Democrats at San Francisco may have thought they were doing a clever thing by putting a "Roosevelt" on their national flag, they evidently "forgot" what the name "Roosevelt" stands for among Germans. Indeed, German-Americans, he said, are convinced Franklin D. Roosevelt must entertain toward German-Americans the same hostile feelings as the other members of the Roosevelt family have expressed. Incidentally, it will be noted that Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who is campaigning for Harding, has been discreetly kept from his section, which shows that either the Republican managers are very wary about the situation in this end of the state or that they don't want to complicate matters.

Italians Antagonized.

Among the Italians there has been no active campaign on foreign questions, but an overwhelming majority of Italian-Americans says, for the last two years have been antagonized by editorial and other expressions from Italian leaders denouncing President Wilson for having prevented Italy from obtaining possession of the city of Fiume. That question has been agitated as Italian nationalism hereabouts and the Democrats will hear from it at the polls. On the other hand, the writer was assured that the high cost of living was probably the controlling issue and that the decline in the price of sugar was regarded as an evidence that there are ways had been a plentiful supply, but that the public was gouged by profiteers, who, it is alleged, might have been restrained by the government at Washington. Sugar seems to be more of an issue that appears on the surface.

The combination of domestic ills and grievances on questions affecting their native lands is almost unbreakable. The Western New York majority for Harding will be swelled to incredibly large totals by the foreign-born.

Fears U. S.-British Strife If Ireland Let Go To Fight

DUNDEE, Scotland, Oct. 18.—Danger of embroilment with the United States if the North and South of Ireland were left to fight out their own differences, was predicted by Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for war, in his speech here in which he referred at length to the Irish situation.

Mr. Churchill, after asserting that such a course would lead to civil war "on such an organized scale that it would be disastrous and more terrible than could be imagined," declared it would mean that in England sympathy would develop in favor of the Ulster. Influential persons in the United States, he said, would be coming from the South, while with the South of Ireland and sided volunteers would leave England for the North of Ireland, reinforcements would come from the United States for the South.

That, added the war secretary, would create such tension that Great Britain would be faced with the greatest danger it could be confronted with, namely a quarrel with the United States.

"Two or three years more or what we are going through," he added, "seems better to me than that we should leave Ireland to herself and thus open the floodgates of organized violence and anarchy to the United States."

Mr. Churchill previously in his speech had declared that the reign of terror in Ireland would be suppressed and that it would be time for a complete and permanent settlement of the Irish question.

Ex-King Said To Be Planning Coup While Son Is Ill

BRNE, Oct. 18.—(Havas).—Former King Constantine of Greece is reported here as intending to take advantage of the situation created by the serious illness of King Alexander, his son, by returning to Greece and claiming the throne. The Swiss authorities, it is stated, are taking measures to prevent the alleged plot, and are not willing to take the ball and thereby lose the race by slipping back.

"There can be nothing more reassuring than that this great army of first voters, composed of millions of young men, will approach the ballot box this fall with the same patriotism with which they stood in the front trenches."

"I find that the young men and the mothers who insist that we become a part of the league of nations, the young men who are first voters will find themselves distinguished company this year for the mothers of America have been given the right to which they are entitled. I have no doubt what the mothers of America will do in the forthcoming election, nor have I a single doubt what the young men will do."

COX APPEALS TO FIRST VOTERS IN EASTERN SPEECH

SAYS TO SHOUT "AMERICA FIRST" AND OPPOSE MAKING AMERICA FIRST IN WORLD IS TO SPURN PROGRESS.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Gov. Cox today opened his second Eastern campaign with an address here to first voters, urging them to disregard partisanship and to vote as Americans.

"Americanization," said the Democratic presidential candidate, "is but another word for construction. Americanization is not selfishness. It means that we so love this freedom of America that wherever we are in the world the name of America is mentioned, it shall mean honor, loyalty, progress, humanity and peace. To shout 'America first' and then oppose making America first throughout the world is to turn our backs on progress and on the ideals which the framers of our great constitution wove into the soul of America."

PRELUDE TO FIGHT.

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Now that discussion of the independent socialist party is accomplished through action of the Halle convention, Berlin newspapers editorially concur in the opinion that the episode is only prelude to a heated battle in ranks of the German radical proletariat for a more decisive acceptance or rejection of the third international.

MASSACHUSETTS MAN WAS FED WITH SPOON

After Being Down in Bed for Months and Told End Was Near, Takes Tanlac and Is Now on Job Feeling Fine.

My heart's as at times almost cut off my breath. At these times they had to get me to a window where I could get fresh air in order to breathe. My appetite left me entirely and I simply had to force down what little I did eat.

"I got to where I was constricted for three and four days at a time, so nervous I would tremble all over and could not sleep at all. I just tried everything, including electric treatment, but nothing helped me and I was finally told I hadn't much longer to live."

"One day my friend, Mr. Edwin Broadbent, came to see me and persuaded me to try Tanlac, and I believe it was a godsend to me. I started getting better before I finished the first bottle. I got so I could eat something and retain it and picked up in strength so rapidly that in a few days I was able to sit up."

"Well, I have taken only three bottles of Tanlac so far and am still taking it, but have already regained the use of my arm and leg, and talking about appetites, I can hardly get enough to eat, and my stomach never gives me the least bit of trouble."

"My nerves have steadied down until I can sleep like a log every night. I have been back on my job at the mill now for several days and am just getting along fine. In fact, I am feeling better than I have in many a day and I can't find words to fully express my gratefulness to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by the leading druggists in every town.

GLASS OF SALT CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts Or Bladder Bother You, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

"Drink lots of water," you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium carbonate and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

U. S. BARES PLANS TO SPREAD COMMUNISM

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Definite plans to spread communist propaganda and organization throughout the East were made at the recent congress of the Peoples of the East at Baku, Azerbaijan, according to announcement at the state department.

The 1891 delegates attending the congress were declared to have "taken a solemn oath, sworn upon a naked sword, to work night and day to cause their respective countries to rise against 'capitalism' and overthrow it."

Soviet Russia was the country most largely represented, it was stated, followed in order by Persia, Georgia and the native tribes of Caucasus and Asia. Fifty-five of the delegates were women.

"The battlefield of the soviet movement would embrace Asia as well as Europe, under the plans and opinions of leaders like Zinovieff, the president of the Petrograd soviet, and Radek, president of the Moscow soviet, said the announcement."

ACTION URGED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Immediate action to stop alleged communist propaganda party propaganda in public schools of New York city was urged by the American Defense society in a letter to Anning S. Prall, president of the board of education.
